pahli hill bandra bhai

Pahli Hill Bandra Bhai, a distinctive Indian dining and speakeasy cocktail restaurant and bar located in the heart of Fitzrovia. Pahli Hill is a Michelin Bib awarded restaurant inspired by India's diverse regional cuisines, offering refined yet comforting dishes that celebrate bold flavors and traditional cooking techniques. Hidden below, Bandra Bhai is our quirky, vintage-style cocktail bar—a speakeasy-style escape serving expertly crafted drinks alongside indulgent bar snacks. Perfect for a relaxed evening or a lively celebration, it's a truly unique venue for those looking to experience something different.

PAHLI HILL The Restaurant

Located in the heart of Fitzrovia and modeled on the cultural melting pot of regional cuisines of India, is Pahli Hill Bandra Bhai. A celebration of diversity and indigenous recipes, techniques, and produce, we research and curate the finest regional Indian plates, derived from home recipes and made to share in an informal yet smart setting. The restaurant celebrates an eclectic mix of flavors from every corner of the country, and we constantly add seasonal specials to our menu.

BANDRA BHAI Underground Bar

Beneath the streets of Fitzrovia, step into a retro Indian smuggler's den. Full of spectacular trinkets, foreign liquor, gaudy art, and velvet upholstery, Bandra Bhai is a tribute to underground operations of years gone by and is now your delightfully intimate, dimly lit, groovy basement spot serving the best cocktails in London.

BANDRA BHAI

THE STORY

Bandra, once a quiet Catholic fishing village, evolved into a vibrant Bombay neighborhood. In the early '90s, India's closed economy led to underground smugglers providing rare luxuries like whiskies and gold watches. Our bar and cocktails celebrate this spirit of secret hustle, forbidden indulgence, and timeless charm.

COCKTAILS All at £ 14

KINGPIN LASSI

Desi Daru Mango Vodka, Yoghurt, Lime, Briottet Mangu

A clarified mango lassi with vodka, inspired by Punjab's legendary smugglers. Smooth, rich, and deceptively strong.

PHANTOM

Mijenta Blanco, Orange Chilly Cordial, Absinthe, Tajin, Lime

Phantom Singh, the elusive smuggler never caught. Like him, this cocktail is bold, mysterious, and unpredictable.

DELHI MULE

Hapusa Gin, Khoosh Bitters, Ginger, Tonic, Lime

Like an Old Delhi sexologist, the Delhi Mule is bold, mysterious, and layered.

DANCHO DON

Woodford Reserve, Jade Perique Tabac, Demerara, Dr.

Hostetter's, Angostura, Oak Wood

In the dimly lit corners of Old Delhi, the Dancho Don sat back with a 'sutta' in one hand and a deal in the other.

VEERAPAN

Spiced Ten to One Rum, Cinnamon & Jaggery, Lime

Inspired by India's notorious bandit, this daring cocktail blends spiced rum, cinnamon, and jaggery syrup, balanced by fresh lime. Rich, fiery, and unpredictable.

MALABAR RUN

Mijenta Reposado, Pepper Infused Mezcal, Cinnamon, Jaggery, Coke, Lime

A tribute to Kerala's pepper smugglers.

BASANTI

Edwards Rhubarb Vodka, Lychee Puree, Rose

Basanti moved like a rumour through the Indian coast, a smuggler no one could catch and everyone swore they'd seen.

BABA BUDAN

Desi Daru Original Vodka, Cafe Solo, Hazelnut Syrup, Coffee

A cocktail honouring Baba Budan's legendary smuggling of seven coffee beans from Yemen to India hidden in his beard.

NATWARLAL

Salcombe Gin, Cointreau, Butterfly-Pea, Sugar, Lime

A shape-shifting gin drink, a deadly couple just like the master conman himself. Butterfly pea gin morphs from blue to pink with a squeeze of lime.

THE ART AT The Restaurant

FIRST PICTURE

The artwork titled "Bingo" captures the essence of a kitty party, a gathering where ladies meet, often held at restaurants or someone's home. This is the artist's interpretation of such an event, featuring women playing bingo and engaging in games.

- Six women of different styles are depicted enjoying games.
- A man on the right is calling out bingo numbers, while another man on the left is observing the women.

The scene reflects a kitty party in a village, yet showcases the irony of modern times with contemporary furniture, an iPhone, and a glass of wine—elements that remain rare in Indian villages to this day.

SECOND PICTURE

They stand on a large pink lotus rising from a pond, a common motif in Hindu art where the lotus represents purity, beauty and spiritual elevation emerging unsullied from muddy waters.

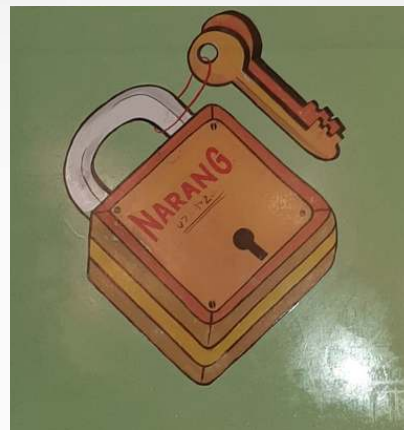

Surrounding lotus leaves and still water turn the setting into a sacred, almost otherworldly space, hinting that their relationship is not just romantic but also spiritually elevated or blessed.

THIRD PICTURE

near exit doors is a tribute to nostalgic Bombay (60'-70') art, décor building elements and retro products but fun way. A woman and a man in the middle of the picture. The lime and chilli often left in the entrance of home,s its supposed to bring all the good spirits and good luck and get rid of bad spirits.

FOURTH PICTURE

Small art work around the restaurant with plastic & metal – Thought behind the artist purpose is everything is digital now, many people lost their job due to less demand, worked with a lady who is trying to revive advertising painters. It's artist's idea of their past, every day items as a reminder of better and simpler times.

Right frame: This looks like Feroz Khan — known for his suave, stylish screen presence. The sunglasses, mustache, and bold fashion are very characteristic of his persona, especially from films like Dharmatma or Qurbani.

THE ART AT The Restaurant

Left Image: This image features the late Nigerian electro Afro-funk musician William Onyeabor. Known for his reclusive nature and pioneering synthesizer sound, Onyeabor was a prolific artist in the late 1970s and 1980s.

Right Image: The person is dressed in vintage-style attire, including a collared shirt with a distinctive horizontal stripe and wide-legged trousers.

The photograph has a sepia or black-and-white tone, giving it a classic, nostalgic feel

Pradyumna Kumar Mahanandia — his love story is one of the most incredible real-life love journeys

In the 1970s, Pradyumna Kumar Mahanandia (often called PK) was a young artist in New Delhi who made a living sketching portraits on the street. One day, a Swedish woman named Charlotte von Schedvin came to him for a portrait. They fell in love.

But there was a challenge: she had to return to Sweden. Instead of giving up, PK made a bold decision—he would cycle all the way from India to Sweden to be with her.

It took him about 4–5 months, facing harsh weather, limited money, and uncertainty along the way.

He finally reached Sweden, reunited with Charlotte, and they got married. They've been together ever since, making this one of the most heartwarming real-life love stories.

This image features a framed portrait of the famous South Indian actress Silk Smitha.

Career: She was a prominent erotic actress in the 1980s, appearing in over 450 films across various languages including Malayalam, Tamil, Telugu, and Hindi.

Iconic Status: Known for her distinctive eyes and makeup skills, she became a major sex symbol in the South Indian film industry.

Legacy: Her life story inspired the Bollywood film The Dirty Picture.

Death: She passed away on September 23, 1996, at the age of 35.

THE ART AT The Restaurant

This image is a portrait of a couple, likely South Asian immigrants in the UK, taken by the photographer Maganbhai Patel, better known as "Masterji".

Maganbhai Patel (1924–2018) was a Coventry-based photographer who documented the lives of South Asian immigrants for over five decades, starting in the 1950s.

He opened "Master's Art Studio" at his home in 1969, where he took many of his iconic black-and-white portraits.

His work went unnoticed by the wider public until he was 94 years old, when a local group helped curate his archive, leading to his first solo exhibition in 2016.

Patel's photographs are praised for capturing the confidence, fashion, and enterprise of the pioneering generation of migrants in the West Midlands

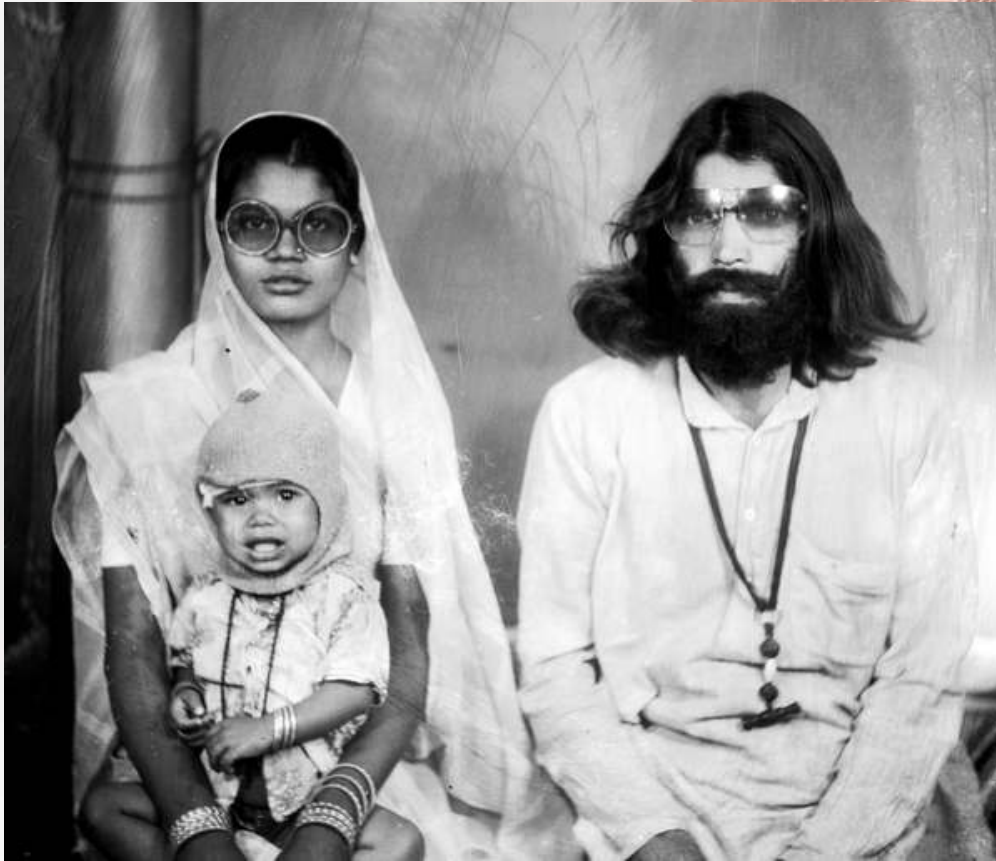

This image features a vintage photograph of Indian actress and politician Jayalalithaa displayed in a decorative frame.

She was a prominent figure in Tamil Nadu politics, serving multiple terms as Chief Minister.

Before her political career, she was a celebrated actress in South Indian cinema.

This photograph captures her during her earlier career, showcasing a popular style of the time.

This image is a portrait of the Maharishi Mahesh Yogi alongside the Beatles, which was taken in Bangor, North Wales, in late August 1967 during a seminar on Transcendental Meditation. Significant Gathering: The Beatles attended this seminar with their partners and other notable figures like Mick Jagger and Marianne Faithfull.

Historical Impact: This event sparked a massive interest in Eastern philosophy and Transcendental Meditation in the West during the 1960s.

Cultural Context: The portrait captures a pivotal moment in the band's history as they transitioned towards more spiritual pursuits.

Memorable Occasion: It marked a time when the band met Ravi Shankar, heavily influencing their later music and international outlook

This image features the legendary Hindustani classical vocalist Ustad Bade Ghulam Ali Khan and the renowned playback singer Lata Mangeshkar.

Ustad Bade Ghulam Ali Khan was a master of the Patiala Gharana, celebrated for his exceptional voice and mastery over Hindustani classical music.

Lata Mangeshkar was an iconic playback singer in Indian cinema, known for her prolific career spanning several decades. The photograph highlights a rare moment of camaraderie between two maestros of Indian music.
